Objectives

Seasonal diseases are borne due to changes in the environment conditions in the course of different seasons. In order to avoid contracting seasonal diseases such as winter diseases, monsoon diseases and summer diseases, it is important for an individual to remain informed regarding its symptoms and causes so as to recognize these diseases at an early stage.

OUTCOMES

It is important to take a comprehensive approach towards general mental and physical health during the changing seasons. Maintaining proper hygiene and following healthcare habits will help you in lowering the possibility of getting sick so that you can focus on other important things in your life.

Assessment Report

This Python certificate course test is aimed at measuring an applicant's level of understanding of Python basics, familiarity with different data types, knowledge of advanced concepts like Dictionaries, Error handling, and file operations etc. and their hands-on programming skills. The 120-minutes assessment contains a unique set of 50 MCQs that evaluate domain knowledge of the candidate on three difficulty levels, basic, intermediate and advanced.

This test also measures the hands-on programming skills of the applicant through a simulator based coding problem.

The Python Skills test is thoughtfully crafted and validated by our subject matter experts which ensures that it is comprehensive and the questions are framed as per current industry standards. The evaluation reports offer a detailed insight to the strength and development areas of the applicant enabling evaluators to make the best decision.

The approach of the assessment process with an open mind and a commitment to continuous improvement. The results of the assessment should be used to inform future course design and delivery, and to help ensure that the course continues to meet the needs and expectations of its students
