The system of CBCS has been in vogue for the undergraduate programmes in all the advanced countries for several decades and proved to be advantageous to the students of higher education because of its features like courses in place of papers, availability of diverse courses, scope for choice, weightages with credits, space for multiple kinds of teaching, learning and assessing methods which can effectively cater to the diverse needs of students.

Dr. U. Narasimhulu, Vice-Principal, coordinated the orientation program on Revised CBCS Framework w.e.f. 2020-21. As the curriculum has been changed, there is immense need for revamping the curricular plans. This has been highlighted by the Principal Dr. K. Aruna Kumar. Sri. A. Srinivasulu, lecturer in Botany, gave a brief overview of the new guidelines and framework.
